

T&C for NMD ATM 2021

This policy explains how Indian Institute of Metals (hereinafter referred to as “IIM”, “we”, “us”, “our”) may collect, use, store, disclose or otherwise process your personal data including personal data provided when using this website and describes the rights you have with respect to your personal data.

Personal data comprises all the details that IIM collects and processes directly or indirectly about you as an individual, for instance information about your identity and contact details (such as name, email-ID, contact number), including information received from third parties and information collected through use of IIM websites, cookies or other similar tools.

Processing Personal Data

IIM may process your personal data where such relevant personally identifiable information is required to be processed for legitimate IIM purposes as follows, but not limited to:

- Processing applications for products and services;
- Providing products and services
- Monitoring and improving our website and its content;
- Complying with applicable local or foreign law, regulation, policy, voluntary codes, directive, judgement or court order, as well as any contractual obligation pursuant to agreements between IIM and any authority, regulator or enforcement agency or body or any request coming from said entities.

Access to Personal Data

Your personal data processed by IIM will only be accessible by a limited list of recipients on a need to know basis or where required by law.

To the extent permitted by law, IIM may record and monitor your communications with IIM to ensure compliance with our legal and regulatory obligations and our internal policies.

Retention of Personal Information Security

The security and confidentiality of your Personal Data is important to us. When using external service providers acting as processors, we require that they adhere to the same standards as IIM. Regardless of where your personal information is transferred or stored, we take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that personal data is kept secure.

Who to Contact
